

What health officials, coaches, teachers, and policy makers are saying about the Words Can Work Forum at Fenway Park featuring Steroids: True Stories: Hosted by Curt Schilling.

“I enjoyed today’s forum and congratulate Jeanne Blake, you and the others for putting together such an enlightening event. Thank you for making a world of difference in the lives of our children and parents and providing the tools for educators, health providers and stakeholders in our efforts to educate, inform and prevent the use of steroids.”

“I would like to thank you and all others that put on the great conference at Fenway Park. Very professional. I had my sports night last night and opened up the evening showing the DVD [Steroids: True Stories Hosted by Curt Schilling] to about 250 people, students and parents. Again thank you.”

“Terrific job at the event today. What a great turn-out and a moving set of speeches. I hope this results in widespread usage of the materials. Again, bravo.”

“I really appreciated the conference, Craig’s honesty, and his determination. I would appreciate the opportunity to schedule a forum with him at our school, one which not just athletes but also the entire student body could attend.”

“Job well done, my staff enjoyed the format and love the materials. We had 27 of our Athletic Directors, Youth Workers and Program Managers attend. You are doing some great things as it pertains to health issues and health care disparity.”

“Thank You, I thought this was one of the best presentations I have been to!”

“I have to thank you for the amazing event. Craig’s speech brought me to tears, especially when he brought his son to the podium. I really enjoyed the panel discussion. It was a great mix of people covering different angles of the issue. The crowd was so great. There was so much energy in that room. It really was a perfect day.”

“Congratulations again on a fabulous event! You really hit one outa’ the park.”

“My hat goes off to you. Feel good about how many people you have inspired and how many lives you will save.”

“Congratulations – it was a great event, I might even say “you hit the ball out of the park!”. Keep on keep’n on!”
